

Global Souths Conference

An Interdisciplinary Conference

Sponsored by the University of Louisiana at Lafayette
English Graduate Student Organization

Graduate Student Travel Grants Available for 2022

March 17-20, 2022

The University of Louisiana Lafayette, Lafayette, LA

The 2022 Global Souths Conference committee strongly believes in providing travel funding assistance to graduate students and hope you will apply!

All graduate students currently enrolled in a degree program and planning to present a paper at the 2020 Global Souths Conference are eligible to apply. Applications are given a blind review by the members of the Graduate Student Travel Grant Committee. Applications are evaluated by the following criteria: clarity, originality, and value in furthering the scholarship of the Global South. Proposals focusing on the intersections of the Deep South and the Global South will be given priority.

Deadline for Travel Grant applications is: December 19, 2021.

Submit all applications to couri.johnson1@louisiana.edu and include "Travel Grant Application" in your subject line. Applications should include:

1. Applicant's CV
2. The following information in a Word or RTF document: name and affiliation, email contact, title of paper and brief abstract (250-300 words), A/V requirements, and brief biographical statement including current or potential funding and what remaining needs could be satisfied by a GSC travel grant. (60 word limit)
